

The Misadventures of Chico Chugg (On Board with Chico Chugg Book 1)

Book 1 in a series of 6. Finalist in The Peoples Book Prize 2012. Hello, my names Chico, thanks for looking at this book all about me! I have lots of fun and get into all kinds of mischief with my family the Chuggs. There are Jimmy and Charlotte who are 7 year old twins and mum and dad Hilary and Harry. (Theres also Gran... shes a bit scary!) Our lives are very different from when I first met them two years ago. Come with me and Ill tell you all about what we did to bring our family closer together. Youll meet all the new friends weve made, both doggy and human, and hear all about our adventures aboard our narrowboat. This enchanting tale of the mishaps and other delightful adventures shared by Chico and the Chugg family is beautifully told with expressive, descriptive dialogue and shows us the world of the English canal system through the eyes of a lovable Jack Russell puppy. Suitable for 7 to 12 year old children to read themselves or makes an excellent bedtime story for children from 4 - 5 years upwards. Some quotes from The Peoples Book Prize votes 2012: Fantastic story, realistic and wonderful characterisation and very funny. My son loved it being read to him and has since read it himself. Cant wait for second installment. Lovely and charming story, told from the unique perspective of a Jack Russell puppy! My kids loved it and laughed all the way through! Great to read to younger children and be read by the older ones. This is when it all became a bit of a blur... Witty, brilliantly written and superbly set it doesnt take long before you learn to eagerly anticipate the clever build up in every chapter. Kudos to Ms Roberts on her delightfully imaginative story telling! This book will leave you wanting to read more of Chico Chuggs new misadventures... is it too soon to ask for seconds? My son never tires of listening to this story and he often sneaks it to bed to read it under the covers.

Great to hear about life on the canals too. (Quotes can be seen at www.thepeoplesbookprize.com/book.php?id=729)
