

Excerpt from Proceedings of the New Jersey Historical Society, Vol. 4: 1849-1850 In accordance with the By-Laws, the Society met at 12 o'clock in their room in the Library Building. The President, Hon. Joseph C. Hornblower, on taking the Chair, congratulated the members on their being permitted at last to assemble in their own commodious and well arranged apartment. The Society now not only had a name, but so far as its library and cabinets were concerned, a locality also; and he doubted not that the time would come when even more enlarged accommodations would be required. He also took occasion to present in the name of Madame Van Polanen, Van Doornick, of Bridgeport, Conn., Notices of the Life and Character of Roger Gerard Van Polanen, at one time Minister to the United States: accompanying the presentation with some remarks relative to the family of the donor, who was reared on the banks of the Passaic, at Belleville.
