

Handbook, Navigation Laws of the United States: Sections and Acts Applicable to Shipment and Discharge of Seamen; Qualifications of Licensed Officers, ... Act, Notes and Tables (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Handbook, Navigation Laws of the United States: Sections and Acts Applicable to Shipment and Discharge of Seamen; Qualifications of Licensed Officers, Manning Scale, Etc., Seamen's Act, Notes and Tables. The first edition of the Handbook (1915) contained the law as it existed prior to the enactment of the Seamen's Act, March 4, 1915. The second edition (1916) contained the law as amended by the Seamen's Act and other legislation of the same period. The present edition contains the law as it exists at the time of publication, including Executive Orders, Department Regulations and rulings. The laws are printed in full. The work is enlarged by additional matter under the heads: Marine Hospital Service, Immigration Act and Head Tax, and Compensation For Accidents. The Appendix contains a number of new features explanatory of the Seamen's Act, war regulations, seamen's insurance, etc. The Notes following certain sections are based in most instances upon the judgments rendered by the Admiralty courts. Government regulations, and rulings of other authorities. In order that the law in any given instance may be readily determined, the reader should in all cases refer to the Table of Sections on pages 138-142. The segregation of the sections under the heads, General, Foreign, Coastwise, and Fisheries, will enable the reader to find the law applicable in each case. The definitions in these pages of the foreign and coastwise trades are made with reference solely to the application of the Navigation Laws to seamen. These definitions must not be confused with the general laws, Customs regulations, etc., in respect to the foreign and coastwise trades. The work has been entirely revised and brought to date in each particular. About the Publisher: Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at
