

The Iris 1909 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Iris 1909
Iris
This message we send to the world beyond,
To tell of our school life so near its close;
It voices our hopes, cares and ambitions fond,
And carries our love wherever it goes.
The task too far exceeds our mortal skill.
We ask in mighty Joves Olympian hall
That the messenger divine our work fulfill.
Then Iris herself appears at the call.
The fairest, fleetest one of all is she.
With colors gorgeous as the rainbows hue,
As welcome may this Iris be
To all, as she who bears it forth to you.
